g. holders of certain cards or discount passes (including the Museumkaart) are eligible for a discount. Visitors must bring proof of discount and demonstrate their card or discount pass at the Palace. If this is not possible, the visitor must pay the full price. The discount is only valid for the person named on the (personal) card.

h. these terms and conditions are part of the general conditions for visitors of the Royal Palace Amsterdam, as stated on www.paleisamsterdam.nl. When buying your e-tickets you accept these conditions for visitors.

i. individual e-tickets an e-ticket is valid for one year after purchase. An e-ticket will be invalid after the expiry of the date indicated on the e-ticket. An e-ticket gives one person access to the Palace. After the access, the e-ticket cannot be used again.

j. group tickets and tickets for guided tours an e-ticket for a group visit or guided tour is linked to a specific date and time as stated on the e-ticket. The e-ticket is only valid on this date and time. The validity of the tickets will expire after this date and time.

4. GUIDED TOURS

4.1 A guided tour can only be booked by completing the form on the website www.paleisamsterdam.nl

4.2 A tour can only be arranged within the regular opening hours of the Palace, at a time mentioned in the booking form.

4.3 You need to arrive in time before the start of the tour so there is enough time for payment and the storage of coats and bags. If the group arrives too late, it may be necessary, taking into account the schedule of our guides, to shorten the tour.

4.4 Cancellation can be done up to two week in advance. Up to that period we charge a € 20 ,- fee. After this period of two weeks, we will charge the full fee.

4.5 Due to official occasions the Palace can be closed for visitors unexpectedly. The Palace preserves the right to cancel the tour if necessary and reschedule your tour after consulting with you.

5. VISIT TO THE PALACE

5.1 The Visitor's visit to the Palace shall be at his/her own expense and risk.

5.2 During his/her visit to the Palace, the Visitor shall behave in accordance with the safety regulations, public order regulations, and other rules applying to museum visits. Children younger than 12 shall only be permitted to enter the Palace in the company of an adult. The Visitor shall also be obliged to immediately follow any directions and instructions given by recognizable officials of the Palace. Should any such official consider that the Visitor is behaving in any manner which contravenes the said regulations, standards, directions or instructions, he/she may be denied further admission to the Palace, without the Palace being liable to pay damages of any kind or to repay any admission charge which he/she may have paid.

5.3 Visitors are not permitted to take with them large bags, rucksacks, umbrellas, baby carriers on their back, baby carriages and strollers or other large objects. Visitors must hand in these objects at the cloakroom. The Palace accepts no liability for loss or damage to goods which the Visitor has handed in. All carriages (prams, pushchairs/strollers and invalid carriages) may be subject to searches.

5.4 A Visitor shall be liable for any damage caused by any object (or similar) which he/she has taken with him/her past the ticket check in contravention of the provisions of article 5.3.

5.5 The Palace shall be entitled to refuse admission to the Palace, permanently or temporarily, to any visitor who during one or more previous visits to the Palace or to another museum has damaged an object through negligence, gross negligence or an intentional act or omission, or if there is a justifiable apprehension that the Visitor will cause damage. The Palace shall in any case be entitled to subject such a Visitor, during all his/her visits. The Visitor shall be immediately notified of the decision to refuse admission, if possible in writing.

5.6 In the event of an emergency, for example the sudden disappearance of a work of art, a terrorist attack or other kind of violence, the Palace shall be entitled to close the doors and then to let out Visitors one by one. The Visitor may then be requested to cooperate with the inspection, by or on behalf of staff of the Palace, of his/her bag and other objects. The Visitor may also be requested to permit himself/herself to be searched. A Visitor who refuses to cooperate with such inspection and/or search will be requested to furnish proof of identity before leaving the Palace.

5.7 The Palace regularly grants permission for reports (photo, film or video) to be made in and around the Palace. The material produced may be used for marketing purposes on the website, social media, in brochures, etc. By purchasing an Admission Ticket, the Visitor states that he/she agrees to the publication of this material. Any objections a Visitor may have to the publication of visual material in which he/she is recognizable should be made known to the Palace which will do its utmost to prevent publication of the material.
